

Munson's
McNamara

Munson's
McNamara

The step over from one season to the other.
Monday next we start the fall business.
The great aggregation of Paris Novelty Dress Patterns will be on sale—The highest class of French Novelty dresses without the middleman's profit.
We will show that great preparations have been made and demonstrate the advantages of a store like this.
Monday next is the great Autumn go-off.
One week more and the Millinery department will have a go-off. Miss Lowe will be home the last of this week.
This your best chance to select the fine dresses you desire made in October.

Often before have you voted on trade questions submitted in these columns, but never before have you been asked to pass upon an offering of such interest and magnitude.
The September limited express starts in the morning loaded with dress goods and wraps.
It's the wraps we want to talk about now. Standing on the edge of the Autumn and looking backward we can see how far ahead we are this year of all other years.
The bargain guns are heard all along the line. Tomorrow morning will be the great go-off morning in the wraps. Remember tomorrow morning in the dress goods and wraps.

MUNSON & McNAMARA. MUNSON & McNAMARA.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

HERE WE ARE AGAIN, FIRST IN MARKET AS USUAL.

Ready for Fall and Winter. Opening the Season with a Blaze of Glory.

All Departments Complete in Every Detail

Grand accumulation of exquisite styles. A brilliant display of artistic labor. Style, quality, make, finish and fit far ahead of all former seasons. With everything in our favor we are determined to eclipse the fall business of past years.

The Prospects are Great. Indications are Grand.

With our untiring efforts to please all classes, with our increased facilities to supply the masses, with our enormous stock at popular prices, must mark the triumphal progress of a

GREAT FALL TRADE

You know we sell the best. You know we are the cheapest. You know we are square dealing. You know we pay back money. You know we are strictly one price, and everybody knows that we have everything in stock that is new, seasonable and serviceable, perfect fitting, well made and well trimmed, for all ages, all sizes and all classes.

We have still left a few more of those $35.00, $32.00 and $30.00 suits which we will sell for fifteen dollars. Fifteen dollar suits for ten dollars, and ten dollar suits for seven dollars which we have been advertising. They are in our way and we want to dispose of them. No trouble to sell them if you will come and see them.

We have just received the new styles of the celebrated

"MILLER" AND "GUYER" HATS.

COLE & JONES,

The One Price Clothiers,

208, 210 and 212 DOUGLAS AVENUE, WICHITA, KANSAS.

LAID IN THE GRAVE

Last Duties Paid to the Remains of Congressman Cox.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Long before the hour set for the funeral of the late Samuel Sullivan Cox, the first Presbyterian church began to fill with illustrious and humble mourners and admirers of the dead statesman. Before the services began the church was filled and it was necessary to close the doors, leaving many people on the outside.
The floral tributes to the departed were unusually magnificent. At 10:30 a. m. the funeral cortege arrived. The line was: Grover Cleveland and Vice President Morton; General W. T. Sherman and Judge Daly; W. H. Northrup and John T. Agnew; George Hoadly and Douglas Taylor; S. K. Kimball and George Francis Train. Immediately behind came the bear borne by John D. O'Connor, Mr. Hiram, Mr. H. Whalen, John Henry McCarthy, J. J. Morris, J. H. Hession, N. J. Kearney and Henry B. Hoff.
Cox, in a coffin walked, the bereaved wife, leaning heavily upon the arm of her brother-in-law. Dr. Deems read from the scriptures. The Rev. Dr. W. H. Milburn, the "blind chaplain" of the house of representatives, followed and delivered a short address. The Rev. Dr. DeWitt Talmage spoke very beautifully of Mr. Cox's character as a typical American. The interment was at Greenwood.

MILLIONS OF LAND SECURED

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 13.—Major James Whitehead returned last night with the intelligence that 4,000,000 acres of land in northern and central Minnesota is about to be opened to settlement. Commissioners Rice, Whiting and Marry got into a quarrel with the red men at Leech Lake and came within close of losing their lives. Finding the Indians obstinate they sent for Major Whitehead to come and assist them. The major was an Indian agent as far back as 1856 and is well acquainted with the Indians of the north-west. The party made a success in arranging for the opening up of the following reservations: Leech Lake, Prairie Point, Cass Lake, Winnebago, White Cloud, Ojibwa, Fond du Lac, and Soudan. The major is yet to be secured. The land is rich, regarded as a great agricultural point, is well watered and grown with valuable forest of both pine and a variety of hard woods.

FOR INFRINGING A PATENT.

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 13.—The Lamson Consolidated Store Service company of Newark, N. J., brought an action in the United States circuit court today against Wm. H. Dean, of Ottawa, Kan. The complaint sets forth that by purchase from the original patentee, Robert A. McCarty, the defendant has infringed the patent on a cash service and parcel delivery system. They allege that Dean has and is continuing to infringe upon the patent, and therefore seek to grant a temporary injunction and order the defendant to answer the petition in court. Dean is engaged in the dry goods business at Ottawa.

THE FIRE ENGINEERS.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 13.—The national association of fire engineers, convened its session today. In the morning the question of the duty of firemen to property in burning buildings was discussed. A subject that provoked the greatest amount of oratory was that of the duty of fire departments to render aid at fires outside the limits of the city where the department was located. This afternoon the time was devoted to the live section of a patent fire apparatus. This evening there was a parade of the fire department, Hale, Kansas, the flambeau club and several military organizations.

THE LAST AND BEST.

CLOSING DAY OF THE SOUTHWESTERN REUNION

Hon. R. W. Perkins, Auditor McCarty, Governor Humphrey and Colonel Crisp Speak.

The Ex-Confederate's Sentiments Warmly Applauded by the Veterans—The Reunion a Great Success.

Witnesses Examined at Garden City by the Special Senate Committee—Greenback Meets at Cincinnati—Financial Panics and Other Disasters Predicted by the Platform—Alger on Tanner—Capital Notes.

Special Dispatch to the Daily Eagle.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., Sept. 13.—This has been the big day of the reunion. Every train that has arrived since Tuesday morning has been crowded.

Among the distinguished arrivals last evening was Hon. R. W. Perkins, who spoke to an immense crowd and was followed by Governor Humphrey and Colonel Crisp. A miniature engagement representing the running of the Vicksburg batteries. It consisted of firework on a raft which floated down the Walnut, the camp lying along that river.
Governor Hovey received a most flattering ovation this morning. The line of march to the camp was formed on Fifth avenue, companies B and D of the United States cavalry, under the regimental commander in the lead. Then came the Third regiment, K. of P., with the Wichita division in the lead. Next came a long line of battle scarred veterans and "Hovey's babies," who served as the Governor's guard of honor.

THE DAY'S SPEECH-MAKING.

On reaching the grand stand the lines halted, the former at the side of the avenue, saluting the governor and guard as they passed by. On being introduced, the immense audience arose to their feet and gave three rousing cheers. The governor spoke feelingly of his reception. From the time that he entered the state he had been made to feel that he was at home. A large portion of his division for which he felt a fatherly affection had removed to Kansas since the war. In his speech he dwelt on interesting historical reminiscences and facts which affect the future of the veterans. He was unstinted in his praise of Kansas and its progress. He said that the future as it had done in the past, she would soon stand without a peer among the states of the union.
Many of the audience who had not heard of the speaker, were called on calling him out again. He reluctantly responded with a speech which, though entirely impromptu, was full of eloquence and was one of the finest efforts of his life.
On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

On dismissing the audience at noon Chairman Wilson announced that a distinguished Confederate soldier, Colonel Crisp, of Independence, Mo., would occupy the rostrum. On introducing Colonel Crisp the chairman told him that his reputation as a Confederate soldier was well known to the audience. He said that he had been in the army of General Johnston and that he had been in the battle of Vicksburg. He said that he was a veteran of the war and that he was proud to be here.

DEEP WATER DELEGATES.

Every Mayor May Attend and Also Appear One for Every 10,000 People.

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 13.—The following circular was sent out today: By authority of the deep water committee the call for representation in the October convention in Topeka has been extended to include the mayor of every city west of the Mississippi river, who is designated as a delegate and empowered to appoint an additional delegate for each 10,000 population. The committee also desires to have a representative of each of the following states: Kentucky, A. F. Hall, Massachusetts; Ben. Calvo, Michigan; George O. Jones, New York; Sam. Hunsford, Ohio; Thomas H. Brown, Tennessee; D. W. Hubbell, Virginia; J. M. Laidley, West Virginia; Lee Crandall, District of Columbia. No other states were represented.

The committee organized as follows: Colonel George Jones, chairman; Lee Crandall, vice chairman; T. J. Sharp and William Richards, secretaries. The committee has power to appoint a treasurer.

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 13.—The following circular was sent out today: By authority of the deep water committee the call for representation in the October convention in Topeka has been extended to include the mayor of every city west of the Mississippi river, who is designated as a delegate and empowered to appoint an additional delegate for each 10,000 population. The committee also desires to have a representative of each of the following states: Kentucky, A. F. Hall, Massachusetts; Ben. Calvo, Michigan; George O. Jones, New York; Sam. Hunsford, Ohio; Thomas H. Brown, Tennessee; D. W. Hubbell, Virginia; J. M. Laidley, West Virginia; Lee Crandall, District of Columbia. No other states were represented.

The committee organized as follows: Colonel George Jones, chairman; Lee Crandall, vice chairman; T. J. Sharp and William Richards, secretaries. The committee has power to appoint a treasurer.

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 13.—The following circular was sent out today: By authority of the deep water committee the call for representation in the October convention in Topeka has been extended to include the mayor of every city west of the Mississippi river, who is designated as a delegate and empowered to appoint an additional delegate for each 10,000 population. The committee also desires to have a representative of each of the following states: Kentucky, A. F. Hall, Massachusetts; Ben. Calvo, Michigan; George O. Jones, New York; Sam. Hunsford, Ohio; Thomas H. Brown, Tennessee; D. W. Hubbell, Virginia; J. M. Laidley, West Virginia; Lee Crandall, District of Columbia. No other states were represented.

The committee organized as follows: Colonel George Jones, chairman; Lee Crandall, vice chairman; T. J. Sharp and William Richards, secretaries. The committee has power to appoint a treasurer.

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 13.—The following circular was sent out today: By authority of the deep water committee the call for representation in the October convention in Topeka has been extended to include the mayor of every city west of the Mississippi river, who is designated as a delegate and empowered to appoint an additional delegate for each 10,000 population. The committee also desires to have a representative of each of the following states: Kentucky, A. F. Hall, Massachusetts; Ben. Calvo, Michigan; George O. Jones, New York; Sam. Hunsford, Ohio; Thomas H. Brown, Tennessee; D. W. Hubbell, Virginia; J. M. Laidley, West Virginia; Lee Crandall, District of Columbia. No other states were represented.

The committee organized as follows: Colonel George Jones, chairman; Lee Crandall, vice chairman; T. J. Sharp and William Richards, secretaries. The committee has power to appoint a treasurer.

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 13.—The following circular was sent out today: By authority of the deep water committee the call for representation in the October convention in Topeka has been extended to include the mayor of every city west of the Mississippi river, who is designated as a delegate and empowered to appoint an additional delegate for each 10,000 population. The committee also desires to have a representative of each of the following states: Kentucky, A. F. Hall, Massachusetts; Ben. Calvo, Michigan; George O. Jones, New York; Sam. Hunsford, Ohio; Thomas H. Brown, Tennessee; D. W. Hubbell, Virginia; J. M. Laidley, West Virginia; Lee Crandall, District of Columbia. No other states were represented.

The committee organized as follows: Colonel George Jones, chairman; Lee Crandall, vice chairman; T. J. Sharp and William Richards, secretaries. The committee has power to appoint a treasurer.

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 13.—The following circular was sent out today: By authority of the deep water committee the call for representation in the October convention in Topeka has been extended to include the mayor of every city west of the Mississippi river, who is designated as a delegate and empowered to appoint an additional delegate for each 10,000 population. The committee also desires to have a representative of each of the following states: Kentucky, A. F. Hall, Massachusetts; Ben. Calvo, Michigan; George O. Jones, New York; Sam. Hunsford, Ohio; Thomas H. Brown, Tennessee; D. W. Hubbell, Virginia; J. M. Laidley, West Virginia; Lee Crandall, District of Columbia. No other states were represented.

The committee organized as follows: Colonel George Jones, chairman; Lee Crandall, vice chairman; T. J. Sharp and William Richards, secretaries. The committee has power to appoint a treasurer.

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 13.—The following circular was sent out today: By authority of the deep water committee the call for representation in the October convention in Topeka has been extended to include the mayor of every city west of the Mississippi river, who is designated as a delegate and empowered to appoint an additional delegate for each 10,000 population. The committee also desires to have a representative of each of the following states: Kentucky, A. F. Hall, Massachusetts; Ben. Calvo, Michigan; George O. Jones, New York; Sam. Hunsford, Ohio; Thomas H. Brown, Tennessee; D. W. Hubbell, Virginia; J. M. Laidley, West Virginia; Lee Crandall, District of Columbia. No other states were represented.

The committee organized as follows: Colonel George Jones, chairman; Lee Crandall, vice chairman; T. J. Sharp and William Richards, secretaries. The committee has power to appoint a treasurer.

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 13.—The following circular was sent out today: By authority of the deep water committee the call for representation in the October convention in Topeka has been extended to include the mayor of every city west of the Mississippi river, who is designated as a delegate and empowered to appoint an additional delegate for each 10,000 population. The committee also desires to have a representative of each of the following states: Kentucky, A. F. Hall, Massachusetts; Ben. Calvo, Michigan; George O. Jones, New York; Sam. Hunsford, Ohio; Thomas H. Brown, Tennessee; D. W. Hubbell, Virginia; J. M. Laidley, West Virginia; Lee Crandall, District of Columbia. No other states were represented.

The committee organized as follows: Colonel George Jones, chairman; Lee Crandall, vice chairman; T. J. Sharp and William Richards, secretaries. The committee has power to appoint a treasurer.

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 13.—The following circular was sent out today: By authority of the deep water committee the call for representation in the October convention in Topeka has been extended to include the mayor of every city west of the Mississippi river, who is designated as a delegate and empowered to appoint an additional delegate for each 10,000 population. The committee also desires to have a representative of each of the following states: Kentucky, A. F. Hall, Massachusetts; Ben. Calvo, Michigan; George O. Jones, New York; Sam. Hunsford, Ohio; Thomas H. Brown, Tennessee; D. W. Hubbell, Virginia; J. M. Laidley, West Virginia; Lee Crandall, District of Columbia. No other states were represented.

The committee organized as follows: Colonel George Jones, chairman; Lee Crandall, vice chairman; T. J. Sharp and William Richards, secretaries. The committee has power to appoint a treasurer.

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 13.—The following circular was sent out today: By authority of the deep water committee the call for representation in the October convention in Topeka has been extended to include the mayor of every city west of the Mississippi river, who is designated as a delegate and empowered to appoint an additional delegate for each 10,000 population. The committee also desires to have a representative of each of the following states: Kentucky, A. F. Hall, Massachusetts; Ben. Calvo, Michigan; George O. Jones, New York; Sam. Hunsford, Ohio; Thomas H. Brown, Tennessee; D. W. Hubbell, Virginia; J. M. Laidley, West Virginia; Lee Crandall, District of Columbia. No other states were represented.

The committee organized as follows: Colonel George Jones, chairman; Lee Crandall, vice chairman; T. J. Sharp and William Richards, secretaries. The committee has power to appoint a treasurer.

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 13.—The following circular was sent out today: By authority of the deep water committee the call for representation in the October convention in Topeka has been extended to include the mayor of every city west of the Mississippi river, who is designated as a delegate and empowered to appoint an additional delegate for each 10,000 population. The committee also desires to have a representative of each of the following states: Kentucky, A. F. Hall, Massachusetts; Ben. Calvo, Michigan; George O. Jones, New York; Sam. Hunsford, Ohio; Thomas H. Brown, Tennessee; D. W. Hubbell, Virginia; J. M. Laidley, West Virginia; Lee Crandall, District of Columbia. No other states were represented.

The committee organized as follows: Colonel George Jones, chairman; Lee Crandall, vice chairman; T. J. Sharp and William Richards, secretaries. The committee has power to appoint a treasurer.

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 13.—The following circular was sent out today: By authority of the deep water committee the call for representation in the October convention in Topeka has been extended to include the mayor of every city west of the Mississippi river, who is designated as a delegate and empowered to appoint an additional delegate for each 10,000 population. The committee also desires to have a representative of each of the following states: Kentucky, A. F. Hall, Massachusetts; Ben. Calvo, Michigan; George O. Jones, New York; Sam. Hunsford, Ohio; Thomas H. Brown, Tennessee; D. W. Hubbell, Virginia; J. M. Laidley, West Virginia; Lee Crandall, District of Columbia. No other states were represented.